

THE NETHERLANDS

2021

Welcome to a photographic and inspirational journey in a cosmopolitan country, closely related to the water, where people respect nature and enjoy life with tranquility, creativity, relaxation and art.

☺ Welcome to the country of water, flowers, art etc. as well as hearty, relaxed and joyful people. ☺

The fantastic lagoon near Haagen aan Zee arises holiday feelings and invites to typical, timeless walks on the beach (North Holland) – Sept. 2020

☺ Those who stay well-behaved and properly in their comfort zone will miss the salutary storms of life. ☺

Streamlined yachts are stringing impatiently together in the harbor of Lelystad and wait for their true mission (North Holland) - Sept. 2020

☺ To broaden your horizons keep looking through the seemingly obvious. ☺

Artistically blended cows and space saving seats invite you to linger during a cycling tour along the damn of Domburg (Zeeland) - June 2019

☯ Use your impressive, warm-hearted radiance to inspire others with your infectious ideas. 😊

A spectacular announced sunset at the endlessly appearing beach of Domburg wants to be recognized (Zeeland) - June 2019

☺ Take up all your given resources benevolently, so you can develop freely and magnificently. ☺

A mystical old oak forest close to the beach along the bike route between Oostkapelle and Domburg offers protection and shade (Zeeland) - June 2019

☺ Whoever steps out of the line sees and experiences more. ☺

Even Groynes, set up by human hands, have a mossy life of their own and just don't want to function as wave breakers only (Zeeland) - June 2019

☺ Whenever you reach a new step in your life, pause, and look benevolently back and confidently ahead. ☺

Stairs, tanned by wind and weather, lead via grazing dunes either to the beach or up to the sky, like here nearby Westkapelle (Zeeland) - June 2019

☺ If all windows seem to be closed for you, go through the back door. ☺

The skyline of Middleburg shows the typical, different architectural housing options of the Dutch people (Zeeland) - June 2019

☺ Stand by you. Stay in your golden midst and let your thoughts pass by like white clouds in the blue sky. ☺

Hours of walks on the beach or bike tours on the smallest west Frisian island named Schiermonnikoog let your mind wander - Sept. 2020

☺ New comes into being, if you - now and then - toss the obvious functionality of things over the heap. ☺

Who would the Dutch be without wooden shoes, cycles, flowers and stone walls? Cheese, tomatoes, tulips? No, much, much more, like here in Veere - June 2019

☺ When the paint crumbles on your body and you start to rust, it is time to lift anchor. ☺

The Dutch's' passion for water shows itself - amongst other things - in the variety of boats (Harlingen), where there is always something to discover - Sept. 2020

☺ Take a relaxed seat. A break is needed to look calmly at the colorfulness and roughness of life. ☺

Baywatch in the Dutch style can be shaped by an artfully, shaky and colorful lightness and direction, like here nearby Bergen aan Zee - Sept. 2020

☺ Start your inner fire every day anew and give your heroic works of art to the world. ☺

one of many hosted and homely furnished beach Pavilions is flooded by the setting sun at Bergen aan Zee (North Holland) - Sept. 2020

☺ Use your inner intuition as a lighthouse if you are insecure and unclear where your journey should go to. ☺

Bonus-Pic: The lighthouse near Westkappelle - not the only one in the Netherlands ;- ) - has its door locked and its light on (Zeeland) – June 2019

🕒 How could the next year become one of the best of your life for you? 😊

🕒 Open the door to your dreams and find out what is really moving and touching you in your unconscious being. 😊

Bonus-Bonus-Pics: I have encountered art everywhere in the various shapes like here in Vlissingen as ruminating statue "Mens en weer" (Zeeland) – June 2019 / Sept. 2020
