

COSTA RICA

2020

Welcome to a photographic and inspirational journey to a little, green paradise, where men respects the existing flora and fauna of planet earth and successfully manages to protect her.

© Welcome in a little paradise, where humans try to preserve the uniqueness of our planet earth. ©

The 157 m long bridge (31 m high) in the Salvatura Park allows a spectacular and queasy panoramic view on the fantastic cloud forest – August 2019

☺ Allow yourself to get accompanied on your unplannable journey of life by loving travel companions. ☺

A humpback mother accompanies her child calmly along the Costa Ballena while hundreds of tourists are cruising on the water surface – August 2019

☺ Flow with the stream of life and you will overcome even the hardest rocks. ☺

The magnificent river oasis on the edge of the place Carubande in the Rincon de la Vieja NP invites you to a splashing refreshing bath – August 2019

☺ Which scars, tracks and prints would you like to leave behind in your life? ☺

Large trunks of drift wood lie on the shore of the NP Marina Bellena near Uvita and apparently enjoy motionless the last day light – August 2019

☺ If your eyes already strive for the next, you tend to forget enjoying your being and doing in the now. ☺

A hungry white-face Capuchin monkey enjoys red fruits in the Tortuguero NP and seems to be not able to get enough – August 2019

☺ Everything is interconnected. Everything is one. Everything is peace, harmony and happiness. ☺

The Buddha Cafe on Tortuguero lures with its artistic ambiance and delicious food to linger and to withdraw – August 2019

☺ Let cloudy thoughts pass by until you are tickled again by sunlight and blue sky. ☺

The Marina Ballena NP has the form of a whale tail (which only can be recognized from above) and with its beaches a very shallow sea access - August 2019

☯ Free yourself from any illusions. There are no absolute truths and realities existing. 😊

A canoe trip shortly starting after sunrise through Tortuguero NP gives you an intense experience of the awakening of nature – August 2019

☺ Sometimes you will reach your goals in the distance more by doing nothing than by blind actionism. ☺

The beach at the entrance of Saint Antonio NP is suitable for a midday nap, if you don't mind the heat – August 2019

☺ Take your time. Time to dream and pause. Time for you, before you are there for others again. ☺

"Pura Vida" is maybe the most used phrase in Costa Rica. And for that each has - like here in Tortuguero - his own translation – August 2019

☺ At the end all our striving and doing should flow towards: to give love and to receive love. ☺

A happy travelling couple in Saint Antonio has taken of his flip flops and enjoys the yearning gaze to the horizon – August 2019

☺ Spread your sweeping wings and discover new outer and inner horizons and worlds. ☺

A cormorant dries his magnificent wings in the early morning sun and is no put off by all the cameras aiming at him – August 2019

☺ Listen devoutly to the tides and rhythms of our blue planet. They are also yours. ☺

Nikola goes one more time - after a lot of fun with the waves - in the direction of the Atlantic Ocean near Tortuguero, before sun sets – August 2019

☺ Expand your frame, in which you daily move around with playfulness, creativity and flexibility. ☺

Bonus-Picture: Shortly after sunrise - at 6 am - the locals prefer sleeping instead of arranging to meet for a slippery soccer match – August 2019

Thank You for your

TIME